

MITCHELL AND PEACH

English Growers

The Mitchells have been farming in Kent, England for five generations, cultivating the same land, tending the same beautiful countryside and working with local families to contribute to a prosperous rural community. Since 1894, the family has cultivated everything from strawberries and apples to hops and cobnuts. Continuing in the family's tradition, Ian and Jod Mitchell planted fine lavender on the estate.

Exquisite bath and body products from an English family farm

The essential oil obtained from the lavender (lavandula angustifolia) possesses a distinctly 'peachy' aroma – hence the name Mitchell and Peach.

The quality of the essences distilled from the plantation inspired them to create a bath and body range of uncompromising quality. Mitchell and Peach was born.

All Mitchell and Peach products use the matured essential oils from the family's fields. The range is free from parabens, mineral oil, sodium lauryl sulphate and synthetic colouring. Mitchell and Peach products are never tested on animals.

A hand is shown holding a large bunch of purple lavender flowers. The flowers are in full bloom and have green stems. The hand is positioned behind a dark, rectangular sign with the words "ENGLISH GROWERS" cut out in a white, sans-serif font. The background is a blurred indoor setting with a window, suggesting a greenhouse or nursery.

The Mitchell and Peach fragrance possesses an uplifting, sensuous character and a satisfying complexity. Its top note invigorates with ylang-ylang petals and Palmarosa. At its heart, roses mingle with pure English lavender to conjure the tranquility of a summer's evening in the countryside. The base note, with sweet vanilla and violet, is warm and sensuous.
