

ORMONDE JAYNE
LONDON

“In creating Ormonde Jayne, my goal was to combine elements which I consider define true elegance: The quality of English craftsmanship, the art of French perfumery and the sensuality and natural harmony of the Orient.”

— Creator and Founder
Linda Pilkington

Ormonde Jayne was created and is privately owned by self-taught nose Linda Pilkington.

Her extensive travels around the world sharpened her appetite for exotic, unusual and luxurious tastes, smells and textures.

When asked to create the “perfect scented candle” for one of the world’s leading luxury houses, Linda rose to the challenge. It wasn’t long before her inspired vision thrust Ormonde Jayne into the limelight. Linda built the brand from its early incarnation as the bespoke supplier of scented candles to Chanel Fine Jewellery and Anouska Hempel Hotels to the fine independent perfume house it is today.

The Essence

A luxury perfume house of uncompromising perfection, Ormonde Jayne searches the world over for the finest, most unique ingredients to create their extraordinary fragrances.

Known for their rarity and purity, Ormonde Jayne fragrances are sourced personally from growers in Indochina, Arabia, the Amazon and Madagascar, then alchemised in their own London laboratory.

A philosophy of quality and true luxury permeates the entire creative process, which is the reason Ormonde Jayne has attracted the admiration of the perfume cognoscenti and fine fragrance lovers worldwide. As well, Ormonde Jayne was recognized by The Walpole as an Emerging Luxury Brand of Tomorrow.

In the pursuit of beauty and elegance, the Ormonde Jayne perfume library reposes on an exquisitely simple principle—extraordinarily beautiful scents using specialty oils not widely used in the perfume industry today. Defying convention in the world of scent, Ormonde Jayne aims to be at the cutting edge of creativity.

The Accolades

"If anyone creates a perfume collection a century from now, it will quite possibly resemble Ormonde Jayne's.

— The New York Times

"Ormonde Jayne's essential Bathing Oil – the scent is sublime, full bodied, all enveloping. This is the most indulgent bath oil you can own."

— Saturday Telegraph

"Up until now, Ormonde Jayne has been one of the fashion pack's best kept secrets. This chic little shop is the place where those in the know go for fragrances, perfumed bath and body lotions and exquisite scented candles."

— Vogue

"...simultaneously familiar and novel. The ingredients are classic, but assembled in a new way."

— Esquire Magazine

The Flagship

The Ormonde Jayne flagship store in the The Royal Arcade on Old Bond St., is a temple to Linda's exacting standards of merchandising, brand integrity and professional customer service.

Antique gold shagreen wall coverings, black glass chandeliers, ivory stone floors and black lacquer makes for a striking and decadent interior—a dramatic setting for a heady array of exquisite perfumes.

global distribution

In addition to the flagship location in England, Ormonde Jayne is currently sold at Harrod's in the Black Hall and Sloane.

Ormonde Jayne has recently entered the Middle East market and intends to launch in the United States, Asia and Russia, focusing on luxury department stores that deliver an aspiration of niche and luxury brands.
